

Official notice

Evacuation of the town centre Sunday the 25th of December 2016

Please would you leave your flat or house at 8:00 o' clock if you are living in the town centre.

The town centre has to be evacuated completely on Christmas Day, 25th 12. 2016, due to the deactivation of an aircraft bomb of World War II. Please leave your flat or house and the area of the town centre on Sunday the latest until 8:00 o'clock. Your house is situated within the radius of evacuation (see map on the back!). The whole area has to be evacuated until 10:00 o'clock to your own safety.

Try to find accommodation at friends or relatives during the time of evacuation. If you should have no possibility of such an accommodation we offer emergency accommodations. You will find the means of transport to these emergency accommodations at the bus stops of the Stadtwerke Augsburg. Transport is free of charge.

Please also inform your neighbours. And please keep especially these persons in mind who can't leave their flats unassisted and please do report them.

And also please think about these persons who don't speak German. You will find all actual information and the time of the possible return to your flat in the internet on www.augsburg.de/evakuierung

Stay in contact with the city via www.facebook.de/augsburg, www.twitter.com/augsburgcity, WhatsApp (www.augsburg.de/social-media) or via telephone 0821 324 4444 (24 hours service)

The City of Augsburg
Office of fire protection and civil protection

Legal note: The legal basis of this measure of evacuation is a general decree of the city of Augsburg of 22.12.2016